CORRESPONDENCE

1. Steve Schnell, Community Development Director of Cheboygan County asked for township participation on the County Master Plan. A date of Oct. 2nd or October 23rd is being considered for a joint meeting with Hebron, Mackinaw and Munro Townships. October 23rd was the choice for Munro Township.
2. Form L-4029 for the 2012 Tax Rate Request was sent to each township to be presented to the County. Antkoviak reported that the County said Munro had to levy the .75 mills that voters approved at the August Primary election for fire protection. Attorney MacArthur wrote up the wording stating Munro could levy just enough millage to pay the current year fire fees. Antkoviak was taking the ballot-wording proposal to the County for review. (The levy will be .55 mills).
3. DEQ – Permit was granted to James Hodgson for shoreline protection.
4. Jerry and Lisa Atherholt asked about installing hidden intersection signs on both the Southbound and Northbound areas on Heilman Road where Hayward Road dead ends at Heilman Road. They said the area is very dangerous. Ed Ginop said the big tree blocks motorists view, drivers need to be very careful. Antkoviak is going to a CCRC meeting and will ask the Road Commission about a sign.
5. DEQ – Munro Township is now enrolled in the FEMA National Flood Insurance Program.
6. NEMCOG is hosting a seminar on Economic Growth for Pure Michigan, October 3, 2012, 12:00 – 2:00 p.m. at the University Center in Gaylord.

OLD BUSINESS

Several neighbors are complaining about Mr. Roger Skrobeck blocking off the two-track trail going across his property. Supervisor Antkoviak said he'd talk to Mr. Skrobeck in person.

NEW BUSINESS

Marie Watts asked the board why the County is not grading her road (North Extension). Antkoviak said North Extension is a Primary County Road and the CCRC is not grading any roads because they are working on other roads.

Motion by Mandrick, supported by Dotski to adjourn at 8:30 p.m. Motion carried.
