GUEST SPEAKER

Susan Ball of the Cheboygan Swimming Pool Committee came before the township board to address the need of support for the proposed swimming pool to be built next to the ice hockey rink in Cheboygan. If Munro Township agrees to a voted millage, the residents of Munro would be able to use the facility for reduced fees. Other townships in nearby counties maybe interested in joining with the community pool project. Ms. Ball stated that townships interested in a pool would have to have an election next year, a one mill for 20 years was suggested. The Pool Committee needs to have a letter of support from the township by June 1st.

CORRESPONDENCE

1. Cheboygan County Gypsy Moth, letter identifying different caterpillars.
2. Edward Waud of Munro Lake Drive asked about paving Munro Lake Drive.
