CITIZENS COMMENTS

Trash pick up day on May 28th was the worst ever by J & N Disposal for missing people's houses. The board received quite a few calls by residents that didn't get their trash picked up on Saturday. J & N apologized and picked up the trash on Monday.

BILLS – Mandrick made the motion to pay the bills amounting to $8,470.44, supported by Dotski. Motion carried.

CORRESPONDENCE

1. DEQ gave permit to Kirby Dipert to place fill in wet lands for a pole barn.
2. Cheboygan County Clerk notified board that their 1 mill allocation was approved.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Inverness Township asked if Munro Township wanted to pay half the cost to dust control N. Extension Road being as the County Road Commission was not going to brine their roads this year. Mandrick made the motion to have N. Extension Road brined but only spot controlled (300' in front of houses). Antkoviak supported the motion. Motion carried. Charles will notify the Inverness Township Board.
2. There is a fallen tree in the cemetery. Antkoviak said he would take care of it.

OLD BUSINESS

Ginop will ask Mike Rocheleau to install the new message board on the front of the township hall.

No whines, groans or gripes.

Mandrick made the motion to adjourn, supported by Dotski. The meeting was adjourned at 8:30 p.m.

Linda N. Ginop
Munro Township Clerk
